

PENNSYLVANIA, 7; INDIANS, 6.

PHILADELPHIA, April 7. — Pennsylvania opened her baseball season here to-day by taking the first game from the Carlisle Indians, which in a measure reconciled old Penn's followers for the scalp captured by the redskins during the football season. It was a narrow margin, however, and it was only to a rally in the ninth inning that "Pennsy" escaped defeat. The Indians took the lead in the third inning, and retained it until the last, when a brace of lucky hits by the Quakers clinched the game. The score:

PRINCETON, 12; TUFTS, 2.

Special to The New York Times.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 7.—The Tigers met the Tufts College team this afternoon. Neither side played fast ball, except in spots, which were a long way apart. Pearson, the freshman first baseman, took all the chances offered him, and made some excellent stops. His batting was not so good as on Wednesday, but he got a double and a single. The score:
