Princetonians Disappointed Quakers.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, March 5.—Princeton and Pennsylvania Universities were scheduled to meet at the Ice Palace here tonight in a hockey match, but for some unexplained reason Capt. R. D. Little and Goal Keeper Paull were the only Orange and Black players to put in an appearance. These two had been in Washington attending the inaugural ceremonies, and came on fully expecting to join the remainder of the team here. "It was late when word was received of the Tigers' likelihood of not coming, and Manager Ballingall exhausted every effort to secure a representative Princeton team to fulfill its engagement. Failing in this, he finally succeeded in securing several Haverford College players, who, with Paull and Little, lined up against the Red and Blue. Penn's team won by a score of 5 to 0. Line-up:

Pennsylvania, 5.	Position.	Mixed Team, 0.
Kier.....	Goal.....	Paull
Atler.....	Point.....	Neilson, Worthington
W. Gardiner.....	Cover Point.....	Thorne
Mills.....	Forwards.....	De Mott, Winslow
