

YALE WRESTLERS WIN TITLE.

Blue First in Championship—Penn and Columbia Tie.

Yale's wrestlers won the intercollegiate championship in the competition held last night in the Columbia gymnasium, defeating Columbia, Pennsylvania, and Princeton after a close contest that was marked by fast and spirited matches, full of interest to the goodly crowd gathered to witness the tourney. Yale scored 7 out of a possible 14 points, Pennsylvania tying with Columbia for second place with 5 points each, while Princeton was last, with 4 points to her credit.

The majority of the preliminary bouts went to the winners on decision of the referee, neither contestant getting a fall, but there was lively work nevertheless. In the 135-pound class Shimmon of Columbia and Scott of Princeton especially gave an interesting and spirited exhibition. Scott had the Columbia man in some tight places at times, but Shimmon showed superior skill toward the end, and won after an extra period of two minutes.

In the heavyweight class H. S. Page of Yale started out by ripping Escheverria's jersey off. The Columbia man retired and appeared reattired. Escheverria seemed more skillful and more aggressive, but despite this Yale got the decision.

J. M. Howell, Columbia, had little difficulty in disposing of Dole of Yale, and C. N. Joyce of Pennsylvania for the welterweight championship.

In the bout between Herring of Princeton and Page of Yale in the heavyweight class, Page tried to mix things up, but before the bout had fairly commenced Herring had the Yale man on his back with a full Nelson.
