

Cornell Downs Penn at Hockey.

Special to The New York Times.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 2.—Cornell made it two straight from Pennsylvania to-night in the series of hockey games at the Elysium rink. The Cornell team, having had the benefit of more practice than its opponents, completely outclassed Pennsylvania to-night and won by the score of 6 to 0.

Cornell was faster than in the other games and displayed better team work. Line-up:

Cornell.	Position.	Pennsylvania.
Ford.....	Goal	Malts
Smith.....	Point	Hayden
Matchmeer.....	Cover	Young
Yohe.....	Rover	King
Vincent.....	Right wing	Haggerty
Jones.....	Left wing	D. Campbell
Magner.....	Centre	H. T. Campbell

Goals—Yohe 2, Jones 2, Vincent 1, Magner 1.
Stops—Malts 10, Ford 4. Penalties—Young 2,
Smith 1, Hayden 1. Referee—McAvoy. Judge of play—F. Poland. Time of periods—Twenty minutes.

The New York Times

Published: January 3, 1909

Copyright © The New York Times