

CORNELL WRESTLERS WIN.

Ithacan Grapplers Capture 6 Bouts Out of 7 on Mat.

Special to The New York Times.

ITHACA, N. Y., Feb. 27.—Cornell's wrestling team proved that it would become a big factor in the fight for intercollegiate supremacy by soundly defeating the Pennsylvania team here to-night before the largest crowd that ever attended a wrestling meet in this city. Cornell won 6 bouts to Pennsylvania's 1. Cornell secured three falls and three decisions, while Graham, in the 175-pound class, managed to get a fall for Pennsylvania.

Yerker, Pennsylvania's intercollegiate champion, was easily bested by Phillips, a new-comer to the Cornell team. Capt. Waste of the Quakers started to rough it with Peake, but met more than his match, Peake taking the bout on points. The bout between Talbott and Schwartz was very fast and rough. Although the Penn man was heavier than the Cornell captain, the latter threw him over his head without difficulty. Once Schwartz had Talbott within two inches of the mat, but the big fellow broke the hold. When the men arose Talbott landed on Schwartz quick as a flash, and had him on the mat in a jiffy. The summary:

- 115-Pound Class.—Chase, Cornell, threw Cox in 5 minutes 27 seconds.
- 125-Pound Class.—Phillips, Cornell, defeated Yerker; decision.
- 135-Pound Class.—Botsford, Cornell, defeated Peterson; decision.
- 145-Pound Class.—Peake, Cornell, defeated Walte; decision.
- 158-Pound Class.—Davidson, Cornell, threw Murphy in 6 minutes 32 seconds.
- 175-Pound Class.—Graham, Pennsylvania, threw Bayer in 6 minutes 2 seconds.
- Heavyweight.—Talbott, Cornell, threw Schwartz in 7 minutes 5 seconds.
