

NAVY WRESTLERS WIN.

Middles Four of Seven Bouts in Match with Pennsy.

Special to The New York Times.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 18.—The Naval Academy wrestlers defeated the team from the University of Pennsylvania here this evening by taking four bouts of the seven which made up the match. The exhibition was unusually satisfactory, as six of the seven bouts were won on clean falls, and the referee had to exercise his judgment as to form and aggressiveness on only one bout. Schofield of the Naval Academy won the first honors of the match by winning in both the 135-pound and 145-pound classes, throwing Hill and Young with arm holds of almost the same kind. Glasbey, the Penn Captain, won the most decisive victory for his side by pinning Knott with a leg and neck lock. The summary:

115-Pound Class.—Elder, Naval Academy, won from McCutcheon, Pennsylvania, with a chancery hold, in 2 minutes 8 1-5 seconds.

125-Pound Class.—Glasbey, Pennsylvania, won from Knott, Naval Academy, with a leg and neck lock, in 6 minutes, 3 seconds.

135-Pound Class.—Stewart, Pennsylvania, was given decision over Babbitt, Naval Academy, after twelve minutes of wrestling without a fall.

145-Pound Class.—Schofield, Naval Academy, won from Hill, Pennsylvania, with a further arm hold, in 2 minutes, 49 1-5 seconds.

158-Pound Class.—Schofield, Naval Academy, won from Young, Pennsylvania, with a further arm hold, in 4 minutes, 41 3-5 seconds.

175-Pound Class.—Weems, Naval Academy, won from Nisson, Pennsylvania, with a further arm hold, in 4 minutes, 22 seconds.

Unlimited Class.—Hellman, Pennsylvania, won from Loftin, Naval Academy, with an arm hold, in 4 minutes, 40 seconds.
