

CORNELL WRESTLERS WIN.

Princeton Second in Intercollegiate
Championship at Ithaca.

ITHACA, N. Y., March 22.—Cornell retained the intercollegiate title in wrestling to-day when its grapplers came through the finals with 27 points. Lehigh, considered the most formidable contender, won 14 points and finished third, while Princeton sprang a surprise by making second place with 19 points; Columbia was fourth with 10 points and Pennsylvania fifth with 7 points.

The failure of Capt. Herr of Lehigh to get a place was detrimental to his college's chances. Capt. Bame of Cornell also lost his last bout to Watson of Lehigh. The intercollegiate championships in the various classes were won as follows:

115-Pound Class—Suppes, Lehigh, won on decision over Green, Cornell, in 15 minutes.

125-Pound Class—Boak, Cornell, won on decision over Dickson, Pennsylvania, in 15 minutes.

135-Pound Class—Levy, Cornell, won over Gatch, Lehigh, by decision, in 15 minutes.

145-Pound Class—Franz, Princeton, threw Caruthers, Columbia, with half-Nelson and body hold in 4 minutes, 2 seconds.

153-Pound Class—Ryder, Cornell, threw Tucker, Pennsylvania, with half Nelson and crotch hold in 12 minutes, 44 seconds.

175-Pound Class—Watson, Lehigh, threw Bame, Cornell, with crotch hold in 14 minutes, 45 seconds.

Heavyweight Class—Gile, Princeton, threw Heilman, Pennsylvania, with bar and body hold in 5 minutes, 34 seconds.
