

A Close Call for Penn Freshmen.
Special to The New York Times.

LAWRENCEVILLE, N. J., Feb. 20.—Lawrenceville School was nosed out in an exciting basket ball game this afternoon by the University of Pennsylvania freshman team by the score of 29 to 25. The first half ended with Lawrenceville leading by the score of 15 to 11. During this period the foul shooting of Hildebrandt was the feature. Several baskets thrown from the middle of the floor late in the second half brought Penn even with Lawrenceville, after which the Quakers gradually forged ahead. The work of Martin at guard and the spectacular goals caged by Grant stood out conspicuously. Line-up:
