Special to The New York Times.

EASTON, Penn., June 15.—Daniel M. Blackburn has been elected Captain of the Lafayette baseball team for next year. For three years he has played baseball, football, and basket ball on the Lafayette teams. He is a graduate of the Easton High School, and attended Muhlenberg for one year. He is a member of the Delta Delta fraternity. The baseball game which was to have been played with the University of Pennsylvania today was cancelled on account of rain.
