

CORNELL WINS FIVE BOUTS.

Takes Intercollegiate Team Title in Wrestling with 32 Points.

Special to The New York Times.

ITHACA, N. Y., March 17.—Cornell won five out of seven individual events and scored an easy team victory in the intercollegiate wrestling meet here this afternoon, compiling 32 points. Pennsylvania and Lehigh tied for second with 15 points, Princeton was third with 4 points, and Columbia failed to score.

Captain Sager of Cornell, by winning every one of his three bouts by falls and the intercollegiate championship for his weight, was the individual star of the meet. Post of Cornell sprung a surprise by defeating Captain Milligan of Pennsylvania by decision after twenty-one minutes. Servais of Pennsylvania is individual lightweight champion by his victory over Rofe of Cornell. Kaiser of Pennsylvania won the 135-pound class by defeating Repp of Lehigh by decision in twenty-one minutes.

Jones of Princeton, in the 125, and Winn of Princeton, in the heavyweight class, each made two points for the Tigers. Wigsten, the Cornell champion, in the 125-pound class, scored six points by two falls and a first place, and Bard scored five for Cornell in the heavyweight division, after a hard tussle with Pons, the Lehigh giant.

Pennsylvania State was admitted to membership in the league and freshmen were barred from participating at a meeting of the league before the bouts today.

The championship summaries:

CHAMPIONSHIP BOUTS.

115-Pound Class.—Won by Servais, Pennsylvania, by decision over Rofe, Cornell. Time—15:00.

125-Pound Class.—Won by Wigsten, Cornell, by fall over Jones, Princeton, with a head scissors hold. Time—13:00.

135-Pound Class.—Won by Kaiser, Pennsylvania, by decision over Repp, Lehigh. Time—21:00.

145-Pound Class.—Won by Post, Cornell, by decision over Milligan, Pennsylvania. Time—21:00.

158-Pound Class.—Won by Sager, Cornell, by fall over Graham, Pennsylvania, with a head and arm hold. Time—8:00.

175-Pound Class.—Won by Sepp, Cornell, by decision over Cohn, Princeton. Time—21:00.

Heavyweight Class.—Won by Bard, Cornell, by decision over Pons, Lehigh. Time—21:00.

Stagg to Give Summer Course.

Coach A. A. Stagg of the Chicago University football team has been obtained according to an announcement from Washington State College, to teach during the coming Summer session at W. S. C. This plan of teaching football strategy and coaching has been in vogue at Columbia University and Dartmouth for several Summers.

New Clause in Colgate Contracts.

A feature of the contracts for next Fall's Syracuse-Colgate football game is a clause which provides that Colgate shall not use players who have been members of other college teams. It is said the clause was inserted because of a rumor that Colgate was endeavoring to obtain several football stars from other colleges to play next season.