Special to The New York Times.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 4.—The University of Pennsylvania nine beat Harvard, 6 to 4, here this afternoon. The score was the same as a year ago, but today the Quakers needed eleven innings to get their victory over Eddie Goode.

In the eleventh, after two men were out, Whitehill, Harvey and Mouradian connected for base hits and the two runs which broke the 4 to 4 count. Harvard, with one out in the ninth, had a 4 to 3 lead, but Harvey got a double. He later counted when Murphy, trying to catch the Pennsylvania runner off third, hit him on the back with the ball, letting in the tying run.

Harvey did some fine hitting, his triple, double and single all being important factors. Harvard made five of its nine hits off Larson in the fifth and sixth.
