Special to The New York Times.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 24.—The University of Pennsylvania wrestling team defeated Syracuse on the mat in the Archibald Gynnasium here today by a score of 19 to 6. The Penn matmen appeared more experienced than their rivals and captured five out of the seven bouts. The only Syracuse grapplers who won were Warner, who defeated Lillenfield on a time advantage in the 135-pound class and Goldsand, who scored a time advantage over Lutz in the 175-pound bout. The only fall registered in the meet was secured by Scheher of Penn, who pinned MacNamara's shoulders to the mat in the unlimited class in 7 minutes 52 seconds.
