PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—A Texas leaguer by Roger Lindsay gave the Penn baseball team the first leg on the quadrangular cup on Franklin Field this afternoon. That single drove Rea McGraw, who had previously doubled, home with the winning run and sent Cornell down to defeat, 2 to 1.

The teams battled along evenly for eight innings until McGraw started the ninth with his two-base blow. After the next two men were easy outs, Lindsay broke up the game with his tap over second.
