

PENN MATMEN DOWN PRINCETON, 12 TO 10

Take First League Match Although Only Two Falls of Meet Are Scored by the Tigers.

Special to The New York Times.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 16.—By winning four time decisions, Penn defeated Princeton, 12 to 10, here this afternoon in wrestling. The meet was the first of the Intercollegiate League tilts.

Princeton scored the only two falls when Captain Ted Buttery and Harry Meislahn threw their opponents in the 145-pound and unlimited classes, both in less than two minutes.

Lilienfeld and Jefferson of Penn and Princeton respectively came to a draw after two two-minute extra periods.

The summaries:

- 115-Pound Class—Sprague, Penn, defeated Good, Princeton, referee's decision after two extra periods.
- 125-Pound Class—McDonald, Penn, defeated Tekerian, Princeton, time advantage, 6:39.
- 135-Pound Class—Draw between Lilienfeld, Penn, and Jefferson, Princeton, after two extra periods.
- 145-Pound Class—Captain Buttery, Princeton, threw Halpern, Penn, with a neck and bar hold in 1:43.
- 158-Pound Class—Captain Wight, Penn, defeated Stewart, Princeton, time advantage, 1:40.
- 175-Pound Class—Herriot, Penn, defeated Platz, Princeton, time advantage, 6:47.
- Unlimited Class—Meislahn, Princeton, threw Strohm, Penn, with a body and half nelson in 1:00.

The New York Times

Published: January 17, 1926

Copyright © The New York Times