

PENN STATE MATMEN WIN.

Triumph Over Penn, 18½-4½—
Kendall Scores Lone Fall for Side.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 4.—The Penn State wrestlers won by 18½ to 4½ over Penn at the Palestra this afternoon. Al Kendall, former De Witt Clinton High boy, tallied the only victory for the Red and Blue when he scored a time advantage victory over Roger McHoney, State football star.

The summaries:

- 115-Pound Class—Don Steele, Penn State, threw Morris Gamm, Penn, in 9:43.
- 125-Pound Class—Wallace Liggett, Penn State, defeated John Bogdan, Penn, in extra period by time advantage of 1:40.
- 135-Pound Class—Sidney Rabinowitz, Penn, and Ted Wilson, Penn State, wrestled an extra period to a draw.
- 145-Pound Class—Charles Eiseman, Penn State, defeated Paul Lee, Penn, by time advantage of 2:20.
- 158-Pound Class—Frank Packard, Penn State, defeated Carroll Pratt, Penn, by time advantage of 8:22.
- 175-Pound Class—Sam Holdbaugh, Penn State, defeated Phillip Gabriel, by time advantage of 3:03.
- Heavyweight Class—Al Kendall, Penn, defeated Roger Mahoney, Penn State, by time advantage of 1:30.

The New York Times

Published: February 5, 1928

Copyright © The New York Times