

HOCKEY SCHEDULE

RATIFIED BY PENN

Definite Announcement Made That University Will Continue in the Sport.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 9.—Ice hockey will be continued at the University of Pennsylvania. The first definite announcement that there would be a team in the field this Winter came today when the council on athletics ratified the schedule of nine matches. Practice has started at the Arena.

Five veterans are back from last year's team. Coach William Farson has selected the following line-up for the opening game with the Penn A. C. on Thursday night:

Strain, goal; Holland, defense; Woods, defense; Pringle, wing; Andreily, wing; Adams, centre.

The schedule:

Dec. 12, Penn A. C.; 19, St. John's of Brooklyn.

Jan. 16, New Hampshire; 21, Clarkson Tech; 24, Colgate.

Feb. 7, Williams; 15, Brown, away; 27, Union.

March 7, Rensselaer Poly.

The New York Times

Published: December 10, 1929

Copyright © The New York Times