

PENN SIX DEFEATS

RENSSELAER, 2 TO 0

Concludes Season With Victory at Philadelphia—Woods and Greene Score Goals.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, March 7.—Pennsylvania closed its ice hockey season by defeating Rensselaer Poly Institute of Troy at the arena tonight, 2 to 0. Woods and Charley Greene of Forest Hills, L. I., scored for the Red and Blue.

In the first period, Jim Holland of Brookline, Mass., was injured by a flying stick and had to be carried off the ice. He came back later. Steingraber, a Penn spare, was also hurt.

The line-up:

Penn (2).

Rensselaer (0).

KleinGoal.....	Moran
GreeneDefense.....	Kaufman
HollandDefense.....	Dechaime
LegastCentre.....	James
WoodsWing.....	Magadini
PringleWing.....	Diehl

Goals—Woods, Greene.

Spares—Penn: Smythe, Adams, Steingraber.

Rensselaer: Bartley, Montie, Conklin.

Penalties—Smythe, Magadini, Greene 2, Kaufman, 2 minutes each.

The New York Times

Published: March 8, 1930

Copyright © The New York Times