

PENN VARSITY NINE IN FIVE-INNING GAME

---

Gentle in Right Field Against Second-String Squad—Peter- son Used in Box.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—Taking advantage of the ideal weather conditions, a five-inning baseball game was played between a tentative Pennsylvania varsity and second-string squad on Franklin Field today.

Head Coach Dr. Walter Cariss was anxious to see how Bill Graupner, the sophomore catcher, and Dick Gentle, captain-elect of the varsity football team, would look. Gentle, of Brookline, Mass., reported for the first time and was stationed in right field. He has decided to give up hurdling and will devote his time to baseball and Spring football.

Rolf Carlsten of New York played centre field for the varsity, but is handicapped by the football injury received in the Penn State game. He still has his right knee in a brace.

A tentative varsity line-up showed Jim Peterson, pitcher; Graupner, catcher; Callaghan, first base; Captain Wilner, second base; Dennison, shortstop; Al Walker, third base, and Slaughter, Carlsten and Gentle in the outfield. All except Graupner, Dennison and Gentle are veterans.

The New York Times

Published: March 14, 1930

Copyright © The New York Times