

PENN PREVAILS AT SOCCER.

Defeats Lehigh, 4-3, in Extra Period
in Opening League Game.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—In the first Middle Atlantic Intercollegiate Association game today between Pennsylvania and Lehigh, the Red and Blue won, 4-3, in an extra period.

Beyers, Lehigh player, broke his leg in the second half. Penn won when Raymond Gonzales scored in the extra period.

The line-up:

Penn (4).

Lehigh (3).

PerloffG.....	Straburger
WandsR.E.....	Williams
BeanL.B.....	Beyers
SnyderR.H.....	Burhouse
StuppelC.H.....	Earich
ReillyL.H.....	Weiner
McKinleyO.R.....	Standing
HoyleI.R.....	Fountain
GonzalesC.F.....	Gold
HenriksonI.L.....	Abbe
WelshO.L.....	French

Goals—Penn: Gonzales 2, McKinley, Hoyle.
Lehigh: Abbe, Gold, Fountain.

Referee—James Walders. Time of halves—
45 minutes.

The New York Times

Published: October 9, 1932

Copyright © The New York Times