Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 21.—Four falls helped the Columbia University varsity wrestling team to defeat Pennsylvania at the Palestra today, 20 to 12, in the latter's opening meet.

In one of the feature matches Stephen Dzamba, Blue and White football guard, pinned the shoulders of Aram Basmajian, Penn 175-pounder, to the mat in 8 minutes 48 seconds with a half-nelson and body hold.

William Chilvers, in the 126-pound class; Peter Kalajian, 135 pounds, and Alex Hendry, 145 pounds, gained the other falls for the Lions.

The heavyweight class proved very close between Ralph Dudley, Columbia's 200-pound representative, and George Jackson, who competed in the 175-pound class last year. Two extra periods were necessary before Referee Paul Campbell awarded the decision to the Penn man.
