

Penn, 4; Swarthmore, 0.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—University of Pennsylvania, defending champion in the Middle Atlantic Association Soccer League, opened its league schedule today by defeating Swarthmore College, 4 to 0. Ray Gonzales was the star of Penn's attack, scoring two goals.

Frank Pierson, Swarthmore captain, collided head-on with a Penn player and was taken to the university hospital.

The line-up:

PENN (4).		SWARTHMORE (0).
Perloff	.....G	.....	Moore
Stubbel	.....R. B.	.....	Caldwell
Kozloff	.....L. B.	.....	Pierson
Reilly	.....R. H.	.....	Davis
Wands	.....C. H.	.....	Herman
Phillips	.....L. H.	.....	Swann
McKenley	.....O. R.	.....	McKeag
Sensenig	.....I. R.	.....	Fischer
Scott	.....C. F.	.....	Harlowe
Hsu	.....I. L.	.....	Williams
Gonzales	.....O. L.	.....	Oehman

Goals—Gonzales 2, Reilly, Hsu.

The New York Times

Published: October 22, 1933

Copyright © The New York Times