Triumphs at Philadelphia by 10-7—Results of Other College Contests

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.
ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 2.—Playing during showers today, the Navy nine won from Dartmouth by 7 to 2.

The Middies tallied five runs in the fourth on four singles registered against Pyrtex, who had just succeeded Litchfield on the mound, three passes by the same pitcher, and Salvia's sacrifice.

Jerry Bruckel went the 9-inning route for the Navy and was generally effective. He allowed eight hits, including a double and triple, but kept them well scattered. He struck out seven Indian batsmen and passed but two.

Only one Navy player fanned. The Middies received six bases on balls, four of them by Pyrtex, the second of the three visiting twirlers.

Villanova 10, Penn 7

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.
PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—Pennsylvania opened its sixty-third baseball season by losing to Villanova on Franklin Field today, 10-7. A light rain fell during the entire game.

Lou Wannemacher of New York hit two home runs to left center, his second one in the ninth driving in Art Vigilante and Bobby Bond ahead and clinching the victory. Captain Ray Stoviak of the Wildcats and Dick Trexler, Penn's sophomore shortstop, also connected for the circuit. Trexler also had a double and two singles.

The veteran pitchers, George Ruzznak and Payson Brickley, permitted thirteen hits, Penn having the same number off Cliff Choquette and Jim Schelle.
