

PENN SUBDUES DREXEL. 8-2

Uses Three Pitchers, but Losers Collect Only Three Safeties

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2—Penn had no trouble defeating Drexel Tech, 8—2, in its opening game today, marking the seventieth baseball season at the university.

Johnny Woebse and Clint Johnson, veterans, and Dick McCunney held the Dragons to three hits, while the Red and Blue hit Herb Fadeley hard in the early innings. Marvin Rosenbaum, first baseman, relieved him in the fifth and hurled shut-out ball.

The score by innings:

										R.H.E.
Drexel	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	0—2 3 2
Penn	1	2	2	3	0	0	0	0	..—8 9 0

Batteries—Fadeley, Rosenbaum and Stearns; Woebse, Johnson, McCunney and Zwilk.
