

PENN FIVE CRUSHES HARVARD, 92 TO 52

Beck Adds to Eastern League Lead With 31 Points—Holy Cross Downs Yale, 68-59

PHILADELPHIA, March 1 (UP)—Ernie Beck, Eastern League scoring leader, tallied 31 points tonight to lead Pennsylvania to a 92-52 rout of Harvard before 1,933 fans in the second game of a basketball double-header at the Palestra.

In the opener, Connecticut University dented Villanova's hopes for a National Invitation Tournament bid by scoring a 63-58 upset.

Beck, connecting on twelve of twenty-seven shots, reached the 500-point mark for the season and also neared Tony Lavelli's league record of 256 points for one season. The Penn junior now has 220 for nine games. He needs only 36 points in three remaining loop contests to tie the Lavelli mark.
