

Penn Stretches Streak
 Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17—
 Pennsylvania put a crimp in Penn State's National Collegiate Athletic Association baseball tournament hopes by edging the Nittany Lions, 4—3, today.

Billy Deuber's ninth-inning homer with Bob Ferris on base won for Penn, the victory being the Quakers' third straight. Before starting its current winning streak Penn had lost ten in a row. The defeat was Penn State's fourth against twelve victories. Penn's over-all record is now eight and fifteen.

The score by innings:

								R.	H.	E.
Penn State	0	0	1	0	0	2	0	0	0—3	5	2
Penn	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	2—4	4	2

Batteries — Vesling and Leonard; Meachem, Hey (6) and Colgrove

The New York Times

Published: May 18, 1952

Copyright © The New York Times