PHILADELPHIA, March 5 — Pennsylvania's wrestling team gained its first victory in four years today by defeating Princeton, 17-10, at the Palestra.

Penn's last previous victory was over Columbia in February of 1951. Since then the Quakers had occasionally gained a tie but never a triumph.

George Evans, 123-pound class; Dave Kline, 130. Len Shea, 137. Steve Freidberg, 157, and Hay Walker, 177, all gained decisions for the Quakers. Ted Robb 167, drew.

Penn's record for the season is one victory, seven losses and ties with Harvard and Columbia.
