PHILADELPHIA, April 27—Columbia pounced on Penn for seven runs in the first inning and Charley Brown checked the Quakers as the Lions scored a 10-2 Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball League victory today.

The visitors combined singles by Paul Taormina, Bob Martling and Bob Lehner with three walks and three Red and Blue errors for their first-inning tallies off Tony Plaskonos and Pete Morrissey.

Penn scored twice in the third on four hits, including Jim Manley's triple and Ray Green's single. Green had three safeties in five times at bat.

The score by innings:

	R.	H.	E.
Penn.	0	2	0

Batteries—Brown and Martling; Plaskonos. Morrissey (1), Leach (4), T. Conlin (8) and Minervino, Sirch (9).
