

Yale and Princeton Play 10-Inning Tie in Ivy League; Army Crushes Penn

ELIS SCORE IN 9TH FOR 4-4 DEADLOCK

Yale's Rally Falls Short in Princeton Game—Field Soggy After Rain

Special to The New York Times.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 11—Yale and Princeton played a ten-inning, 4-4 tie in an Ivy League baseball game at Yale Field today.

The umpires called the contest after rain that fell throughout the game made the field too slippery.

Yale missed an easy chance to win in the last of the ninth. The Elis loaded the bases with none out on singles by Dusty Clay and Tom Molumphy and a walk to Ray Carlsen. Princeton's pitcher, Herm Belz, then walked Colin Gracey to tie the score. But a fine throw from the center-fielder, John Wert, completed a double play on a fly ball and Belz got the next batter on a pop-up.

The tie will not be played off if Yale wins both its remaining league games, against Dartmouth and Harvard next week. This would clinch the third straight league crown for Yale.

If a play-off becomes necessary, the Yale-Princeton game at Princeton in two weeks will be counted as a league game.

Yale took an early lead on a walk and two singles in the first inning. But Belz drove in two runs for the Tigers with a double in the second. Wert's single scored him. The Tigers picked up an unearned run in the fourth, but were blanked the rest of the way by Bill Gillespie and Bruce Irving.

The Elis got two in the seventh on two hits, two walks and a sacrifice fly.

Cadets Get 8 Runs in 2d

Special to The New York Times.

WEST POINT, N. Y., May 11—An effective pitching performance by Bill Shepherd of East Rutherford, N. J., marked Army's 11-to-4 victory over Pennsylvania in an Eastern Intercollegiate League game at Doubleday Field today. It was Army's second triumph in five league encounters and Penn's fourth defeat.

Shepherd, a right-hander, set down sixteen Quaker batters on strikes and walked only four. The Cadet star was in trouble only in the seventh when Penn put together two hits, two walks and an error in a four-run uprising.

Army scored eight times in the second innings as twelve cadets paraded to the plate. Three hits, three walks and three errors figured in the scoring. The big blow was a two-run double by Gene Fisher with the bases loaded.

Fred Franks, Army right fielder, gained the batting honors with four hits in five trips to the plate. Franks knocked in two runs and scored twice himself.

Navy Trims Dartmouth

Special to The New York Times.

HANOVER, N. H., May 11—Navy's Ben Mantoyal handcuffed Dartmouth with four-hit pitching as the middies knocked the Green from the undefeated ranks in the Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball League, 3-2.

After scoring one run in the first inning, the middies added two unearned tallies in the sixth on two Indian errors.

Captain Blades struck the big blow for Dartmouth, a two-run homer in the eighth.
