By The Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20—The Penn quintet survived two bad scoring lapses tonight and defeated Dartmouth, the Ivy League leader, 68—64, at the Palestra tonight.

As a result of its loss, Dartmouth dropped into a first-place tie with Princeton in the Ivy League.

In the second game of the double-header, Temple defeated La Salle, 77—53.

Penn went the last five and a half minutes of the opener without a field goal but hit on six straight free throws in the last minute and a half to maintain its winning margin.

the victors. Chuck Kaufman led Dartmouth with 17. The Indians trailed, 43-32, at half-time and got back into the contest when their all-court press rattled Penn. The Quakers went without a point for five minutes and later were scoreless for three minutes.

But the closest Dartmouth got was 53-52. Then a technical foul called against the Dartmouth coach, Doggie Julian, allowed Penn to rack up a foul shot and a field goal when it kept possession.

Dartmouth has an over-all record of eleven victories and eight defeats. It has won seven and lost three in Ivy League competition. Penn has a 5-5 mark in league play and is 11-10 for the season.
