

PENN FIVE ROUTS BROWN, 77 TO 46

Mlkvy and Purdy Excel for
Quakers—Villanova Tops
West Virginia, 82-77

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 14
(AP)—Favored Penn took a 12-0 lead in the first five minutes tonight and went on to defeat Brown, 77-46, in an Ivy League basketball game at the Palestra.

Villanova downed West Virginia, 82-77, in the second game of the double-header. Jimmy Huggard scored 28 points for the Wildcats, who ended the Mountaineers' eight-game winning streak.

Bob Mlkvy and Bob Purdy led Penn with 16 and 13 points, respectively. Coach Jack McCloskey used all fifteen men on his squad and ten scored. The Quakers held a 40-25 half-time lead.
