

Penn Triumphs, 16—4

Special to The New York Times.

PRINCETON, N. J., May 21—Penn overcame an early Princeton lead then scored twelve runs on only five hits in the last two innings to defeat the Tigers, 16—4, in an Eastern League game today.

The winning pitcher, Dave Robinson, drove in the go-ahead run, then benefitted from four hitless innings of relief pitching by Martin Padersky.

The Quakers combined four hits with six walks off three Tiger hurlers to score nine runs in the ninth before Bill McMillan, the regular Princeton first baseman, finally retired the side.
