

Penn Tops Princeton, 18-15, For First Wrestling Victory

Special to The New York Times

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6—Penn's wrestling team won its first league match of the season as it got help from an unexpected source to defeat Princeton, 18—15, today at the Palestra. With the score tied 10—10, Bill Jorden of Penn, wrestling in his first varsity match, pinned Dave Harrison in the 177-pound class.

The results:

- 123-Pound Class—Gary Pillard (Penn), drew with Greg McBride, 1—1.
- 130-Pound Class—Richie Sofman (Penn), defeated Brian Baker, 6—2.
- 137-Pound Class—Mike Schiffman (Penn), defeated Tom Amato, 10—6.
- 147-Pound Class—Dave McLaughlin (Princeton), defeated John Boyd, 7—3.
- 157-Pound Class—Thor Solberg (Princeton), defeated John Brock, 5—1.
- 167-Pound Class—Jerry Gates (Penn), defeated Bryant Crouse, 2—2.
- 177-Pound Class—Bill Jorden (Penn), pinned Dave Harrison, 3:42.
- 191-Pound Class—Reginald Ungern (Princeton), pinned Tom Traud, 5:02.
- Heavyweight Class—Bruce Jacobsohn (Penn), defeated Jan Twardowski, 5—0.

The New York Times

Published: February 7, 1965

Copyright © The New York Times