FOND DU LAC — Fond du Lac jumped off to a 9-point first half lead then held on in the second half to cop a 72-67 win over Oshkosh Saturday.

The victory boosted the Cardinal's FRVC record to 3-2 and brings their over-all season mark to 3-4. The Indians now stand 2-2 in the conference.

Pondy outscored the visitors by six in the first canto and built the margin to 39-30 by halftime. The Indians, using a fast moving zone press and a tight zone, stormed back quickly in the third period, however, and knotted the count midway through the quarter.

At this point, the Cardinals' Kim Evans found the range from outside and quickly pecked the home club back into a ten point lead.

The Indians' pressing tactics continued to bother Fond du Lac in the final period and brought Oshkosh back to within one point of the leaders at one point in the quarter, but a final spurt put the winners out of reach.

The Cardinals' Evans paced the Cardinals' balanced attack with 20 points and received scoring support from Terry Bestor with 16, Bob Bendrick with 13 and Scott McCallum with 12.

The Indians' Al Janke took game scoring honors with 22 points. Tom Last chipped in with 16 while Paul Elbing and Jim Strasser counted 12 each.

In Milwaukee Classic Badgers, MU Test LSU, Florida State

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Defending champion Wisconsin faces stiff challenges from cross-state rival Marquette and rebuilt Louisiana State in the sixth annual Milwaukee Basketball Classic opening Friday night.

The Badgers take on the high-scoring Tigers after the Warriors meet Florida State in the opening round games. The winners meet for the championship Saturday night.

Marquette, an easy winner in its first two starts, compiled the best 1966-67 record of the four tournament teams. The Warriors were 21-9 and went all the way to the finals of the National Invitation Tournament before bowing to Southern Illinois.

Wisconsin, which appeared over a case of early season uncertainty in trouncing Southern Methodist 120-82 Saturday, was 13-11 last season despite a slow start. The Badgers finished fourth in the Big Ten.

Louisiana State, was only 3-23 last season. However, it now

Pat Jack Hits 606 National Honor Series

Pat Jack smashed a 606 national honor series in the Ziegler-Timm Couples Bowling League at Hortonville Lanes Friday night. Her big series included games of 256 and 202.

In fashioning the first national honor count of the season in the league, Pat went 100 pins over her average with the 256 line.

has one of the nation's most promising sophomores in Pete Maravich, the 6-foot-5 son of Tiger Coach Press Maravich.

Pete scored 48 and 42 points in the Tigers' first two games, impressive wins over Tampa and Texas. Three other sophomores are in the LSU starting lineup, including 6-foot-8 Randy Lamont.

Florida State, 11-15 last season, lost to Ohio State after an opening game win over Florida Presbyterian. Jeff Hogan, a good small man, and sophomore Dave Cowens, 6-foot-8, are the major Seminole threats.

The Badgers, seeking their fourth classic title, got a lift Saturday when football star Mel Reddick, their top freshman basketball player last season, made his varsity debut and excelled with his floor game and defense.

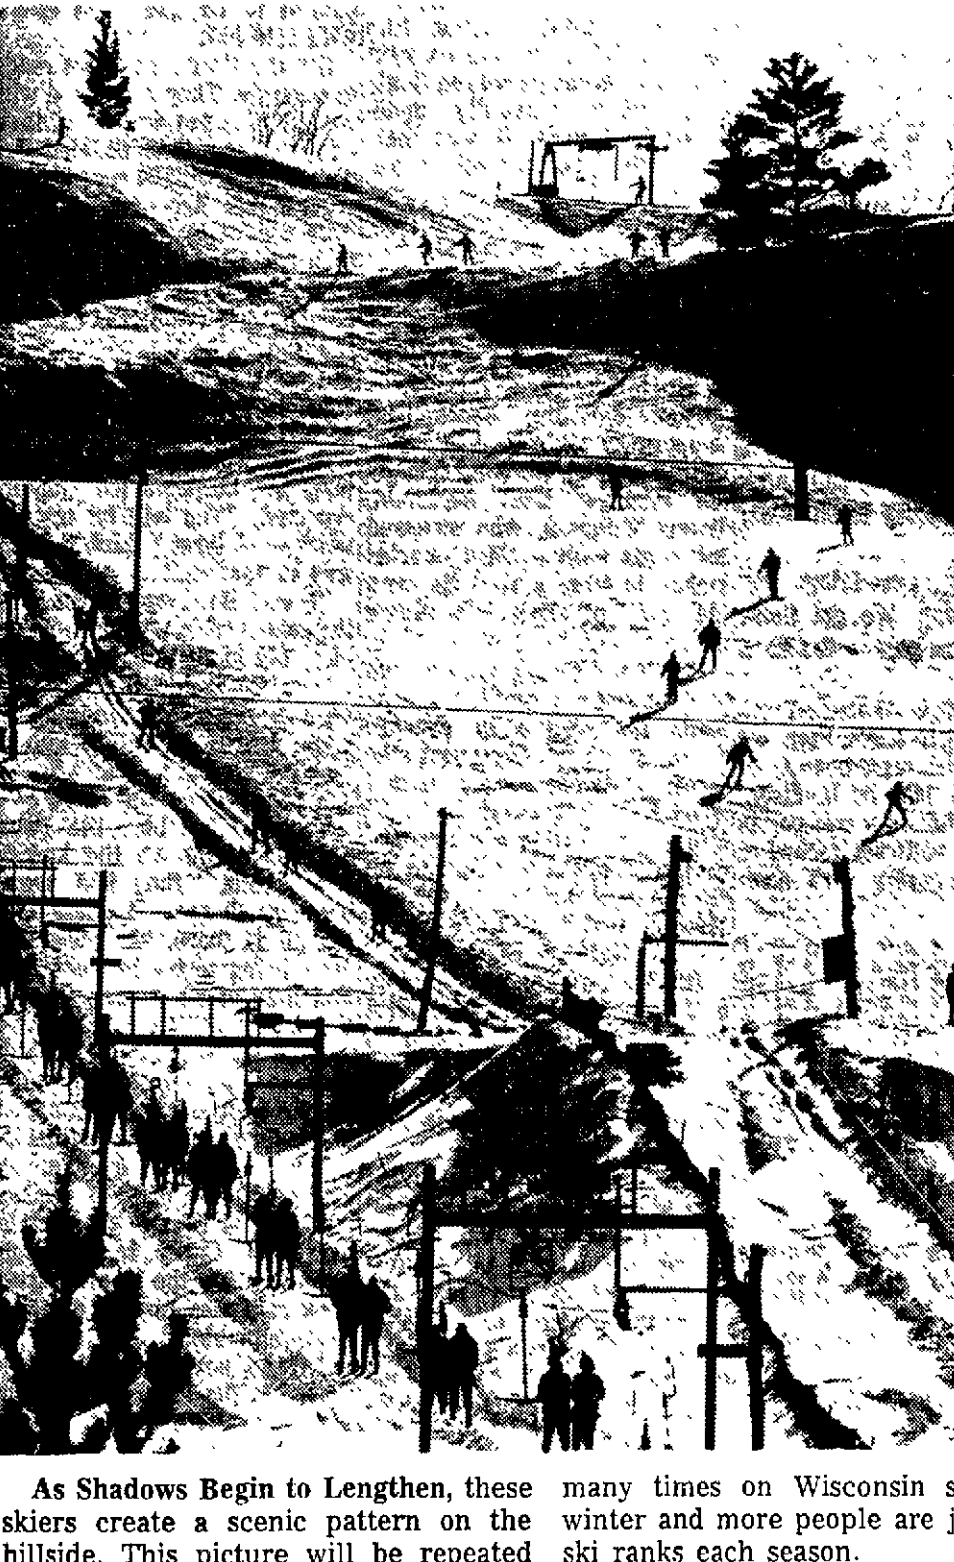

Marquette, which has won the classic only once, in 1965, is led by George Thompson, a 6-foot-2 strong boy. Coach Al McGuire considers the Brooklyn-bred junior an All-America candidate.
