

Penn Beaten, 41-0

By DEANE MCGOWEN

Special to The New York Times

HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 11 — Dartmouth's powerful football team smashed Penn's league championship hopes into the Memorial Field turf today, winning, 41-0, to remain undefeated this season in three games.

The Indians unleashed an awesome ground offense of 509 yards through and around a Penn defensive unit that was forced to play much of the time in its own territory.

Dartmouth, winning its first Ivy League test of the year, broke its league rushing mark of 493 yards, set a year ago against Brown.

The other record was set by Pete Donovan, who booted five conversion points to raise his kicking total to 82 in three varsity seasons. The previous mark of 81 points was established by Bill Hay in the 1965-66 seasons.

Dartmouth's fast backs, operating behind a line almost as quick as the ballcarriers, established its running super-

Continued on Page 9, Column 2

The New York Times

Published: October 12, 1969

Copyright © The New York Times

PENN LOSES, 41-0, TO DARTMOUTH

Continued From Page 1

iority the first time it got the ball. After Eliot Berry's field-goal attempt was blocked by Mike Hannigan, the Indians took over on their own 28.

In nine plays Jim Chasey guided his teammates 72 yards, with Bob Mlakar running the final 6 at 6:28 of the quarter.

Chasey, Mlakar and John Short, who had taken the injured Clark Beier's left half-back post, ripped Penn's defenders apart with a ground attack that set the pattern for the remainder of the game.

The Indians ground out yardage on the off-tackle slants of Mlakar and Short, on pitchouts from Chasey and on some brilliant broken-field running by a sophomore fullback, Stu Simms of Baltimore. Simms, when he was dazzling the Penn defenders with his hard, shifty running, also opened the way for his teammates with some crushing blocks.

Dartmouth put the game pretty well beyond Penn's reach with a second-quarter scoring effort of 14 more points. Chasey hit Bob Brown with a 35-yard scoring pass at 2:43 to cap a 62-yard march in eight plays.

After another Berry field goal attempt went wide, the Indians stormed down the field 80 yards in 10 plays with Short ending the sustained drive on a 12-yard right end run across the goal line.

Bill Koenig came in to direct Bob Blackman's multiple offense then, but the Indians bogged down at the Penn 35. The Quakers marched to the Dartmouth 3, their deepest penetration of the day, but the Indian secondary broke up Phil Procacci's aeriels to stump the Quakers as the half ended.

It took Dartmouth just 50 seconds of the third quarter to put another 7 points on the board as Short broke through the middle for 51 yards to cap a two-play, 60-yard spurt.

The Indians missed two other scoring chances during the third period. Chasey hit Mlakar in the clear on a 58-yard pass-run play, but an ineligible receiver downfield nullified that score. Later Chasey, on a broken pass play, ran 71 yards to the Penn 11. But Mlakar's fumble was recovered by Dave Pottruck to end that bid.

Dartmouth drove 62 yards in eight plays at the start of the final period, Mlakar picked up 34 yards on a slash off his left tackle. Chasey carried the final yard for the touchdown.

With a 35-0 lead, Blackman substituted freely then, but the Indians continued to dominate the action. The teams exchanged pass interceptions—Koenig by Penn's Matt Lawlor and Procacci by Tim Copper. Immediately given the ball back, Dartmouth drove its final touchdown in three plays from the Penn 19 with the final effort a 3-yard run by Brendan O'Neill, a sophomore halfback from Massapequa, L. I.

Procacci, who had such a fine afternoon against Brown a week ago when he filled in for injured Bernie Zbrzezny and Mike Hickok, found himself under constant pressure from Dartmouth's defense.

Procacci, playing the entire game, completed only four of 12 passes for 83 yards. Chasey hit with five of seven for 105 yards to give the Indians just

STATISTICS OF THE GAME

	Dart.	Penn.
First downs	23	14
Rushing yardage	509	99
Passing yardage	105	83
Return yardage	34	108
Passes	5-12	10-24
Interceptions by	1	1
Punts	1	9
Fumbles lost	2	0
Yards penalized	123	37

enough offensive balance to Harry Penn's secondary.

Short and Chasey had fine running efforts. Short gained 130 yards on 14 carries and Chasey added 19 on six, while Simms picked up 84 on 11 and Mlakar gained 82 on 16. Simms also caught two passes for 47 additional yards.

John Trema did the bulk of the work for Penn, gaining 76 yards on 11 rushes while Pete Blumenthal caught five passes for 46 yards. The Indians had to punt just once in the game so strong was their control of the action while Penn was forced to punt nine times.

A crowd of about 17,000 saw the undefeated Indians send Penn to its first loss after two victories over Bucknell and Brown.

Dartmouth	7	14	7	13-41
Pennsylvania	0	0	0	0-0
Mlakar, 6, run (Donovan, kick).
Brown, 35, pass from Chasey (Donovan, kick).
Short, 17, run (Donovan, kick).
Short, 51, run (Donovan, kick).
Chasey, 1, run (Donovan, kick).
O'Neill, 3, run (kick failed).
Attendance—17,000.				