
Yale Six Beats Penn, 6-5, On Late Goal by DeMeza

Special to The New York Times

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 10
—Terry DeMeza, a wing, scored a tie-breaking goal with less than three minutes remaining tonight to give Yale's hockey team a 6-5 victory over the University of Pennsylvania.

Capt. Eddie Wright's third score of the night, in the final stanza, tied the score at 5-5. DeMeza was assisted by Brian Bird and Bobby Ufer on his tally.

The New York Times

Published: December 11, 1969

Copyright © The New York Times