ITHACA, Jan. 31 — Pennsylvania won its first basketball game at Cornell's Farson Hall since 1959 today, 64-60, but only after a late press cut down an inspired Big Red effort.

A regional television audience and 3,500 spectators saw Cornell, with a 4-11 won-lost record, lead the 14th ranked Quakers for most of the game and take a 59-54 advantage with 6 minutes 43 seconds remaining in the game.

At this point, Penn Coach Dick Harter unleashed a variety of pressing defenses that held the Big Red scoreless from the floor the rest of the way. Steve Bilsky tied the game with a 15-footer with 3:15 left and then sank 4 foul shots to give the Quakers their 16th victory against one defeat.

Penn is now 5-0 in the Ivy League and will meet Columbia Monday in a battle for first place. Cornell is 1-5 in league play.

Bob Morse paced the victors with 21 points, 19 in the first half, while Bilsky added 18. Cornell's Bill Schwarzkopf led all scorers with 23 points.
