

Penn Routs Brown For 10th Victory In Ivy League, 90-75

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14 (AP) —Penn scored 12 points midway through the second half to break open a close game against Brown tonight and captured its 10th straight Ivy League basketball game, 90-75.

La Salle turned back Niagara, 101-90, in the second game.

Brown, with a 5-14 won-lost mark, was in contention through most of the first half as Rusty Tyler had a hot hand from the outside. A long jumper by Tyler brought the Bruins to within 33-30 with 3:20 left.

But the Quakers, 21-1, ran off 10 straight points and took a 45-32 half-time edge. Brown battled back and trailed, 62-52, with 10 minutes left.

Then John Koller and Carl Robbins each scored two field goals as Penn ran off 12 straight points to keep its league record spotless.

Bob Morse was high for Penn with 18 points while Arnie Berman had 24 for Brown followed by Tyler with 20.
