Quakers Gain 12th Triumph,
 62-58—Villanova Wins

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 13 (AP)

—Dave Wohl and Steve Bilsky, held in check through most of the game, rescued Penn tonight as the fourth-ranked Quakers held off their crosstown rivals, St. Joseph's, in the second game of a Palestra double-header to win, 62-58.

In the first game, 13th-ranked Villanova scored the first 7 points and went on to rout DePaul, 99-59.

The Quakers, unbeaten through 12 games, saw a 12-point lead evaporate as Mike Moody, a St. Joe's sophomore, led a second-half surge. After the lead narrowed to 53-52, Bilsky made a jump shot and Wohl made four straight free throws.

Corky Calhoun added two free throws pushed the lead to 61-66 with 31 seconds left.

Penn leads the city series with a 2-0 won-lost mark.

Wohl led the Quakers with 20 points. Mike Banton and Moody paced the losers with 20 and 13, respectively.
