Penn Overcomes Brown Stall, 37-33, and Retains Ivy League Crown

QUAKERS FINISH SCHEDULE AT 23-2

Victory Is Their 500th in Ivy League—Next Foe Is Providence in Tourney

PROVIDENCE, R.I., March 4 —Brown almost pulled off the miracle of Marvel Gymnasium tonight by holding the ball against the University of Pennsylvania, but the Quakers scored a 37-33 victory to clinch their third straight Ivy League title.

With the triumph, Penn's 23d of the season against two defeats, the Quakers also became the first team to win 500 Ivy League games. They finished the season with a 13-1 won-lost league record and have won 41 of their last 42 league games.

Penn now faces Providence at St. John's next Saturday in the opening round of the National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament Eastern Regionals.

Only 2 in Double Figures

Corky Calhoun, 6-foot-7-inch senior from Waukegan, Ill., who had 9 points in the first half, shared scoring honors with Arnie Berman of Brown, a 6-7 senior from Short Hills, N. J.
Each had 13 points. They were the only players in double figures.

Berman was both a star and a key to the defeat. Stationed in the corner of Brown's 3-2 offense to pop long shots, he missed 9 of 13 shots. Ten of his points came after intermission.

Penn's two leading scorers from the night before against Yale, Phil Hankinson, 6-8 junior, and Bob Morse, 6-8 senior, missed 6 of 10 and 6 of 7 tonight and scored just 8 and 5 points, respectively.

The Quakers missed their first four shots of the game, but Brown was able to convert it into only a 4-0 lead on baskets by Rich Cureton and Berman.

At Half: Penn 18, Brown 16

Baskets by Hankinson and Calhoun tied the score, 4-4. The Quakers took their first lead, 8-6, on a Calhoun field goal with 12:05 to play in the half.

There were five ties and five lead changes after that, with Penn going to the dressing room at half-time leading by 2 points, 18-16.

The only time Penn had been held to such a low total this season was when Temple, which also held the ball, led, 27-17, at the half in a game the Quakers lost, 57-52. That forced the Quakers into a tie with the Owls for the Philadelphia Big Five title.
