
Penn Wins, Stays Tied With Brown

HANOVER, N. H., Feb. 16 (AP)—John Engles, a sophomore, scored 27 points and grabbed 11 rebounds tonight, leading Penn to a 96-70 Ivy League victory over Dartmouth.

Ron Haigler contributed 18 points and also hauled down 10 rebounds as the Quakers improved their won-lost record to 17-5, including 9-1 in the league, and stayed tied with Brown for the league lead as the Bruins also won.

The New York Times

Published: February 17, 1974

Copyright © The New York Times