

Penn Five Sets Back Dartmouth

HANOVER, N. H., Feb. 14 (AP) — The University of Pennsylvania's front line of Ron Haigler, Bob Bigelow and Henry Johnson combined for 57 points tonight as the Quakers scored an 80-70 Ivy League basketball victory over Dartmouth.

Haigler topped the 14th-ranked Quakers with 24 points, Bigelow added 18 and Johnson contributed 15.

The victory gave Penn a 17-4 won-lost record and an 8-1 mark that leads the Ivy League. Princeton and Brown trail by a game.

Columbia Sinks Yale, 78-74

Columbia's Mike Finley stole a pass and then scored two free throws with 1:11 remaining and then had another pair with five seconds left as Columbia recorded a 78-74 victory over Yale last night. The Lions have won four and lost 17.

After the visitors had scored 7 consecutive points to tie the game at 74-all with 1:41 remaining, Finley, who scored a game-high 24 points, stole a pass from Carnell Cooper. Cooper then missed a short jumper and Finley added the final free throws.

Brown Downs Cornell

Special to The New York Times

ITHACA, N. Y., Feb. 14— Phil Brown of Brown University scored 25 points, 13 in the second half, to lead the Bruins to an 80-73 victory tonight over Cornell.

The triumph put Brown in sole possession of second place in the Ivy League with a 7-2 record. The Bruins are 12-9 over all. Cornell dropped to 3-6 in the league and 5-14 over all.

Brown took a 6-0 lead and had a 36-25 margin at the half. Cornell narrowed the lead to 54-46 with eight minutes left before the Bruins ran off a 13-4 streak.

Maynard Brown led Cornell with 25 points.

L.I.U. Beats Loyola

Long Island University, paced by Reuben Rodriguez's 28 points, defeated Loyola of Chicago, 84-75, last night in Founder's Hall Gymnasium, Brooklyn.

The victory came from the foul line, where the Blackbirds made 20 free throws and Loyola five. Tony Parker was high scorer for the visitors with 19 points. It was Loyola's seventh straight loss, dropping its record to 8-13. L.I.U. is 9-10.

The New York Times

Published: February 15, 1975

Copyright © The New York Times