

Penn Routs Cornell Five By 95 to 75

Special to The New York Times

ITHACA, N. Y., Feb. 21 — Pennsylvania won its 10th straight Ivy League basketball game tonight, downing Cornell, 95-75, and remained in first place in the league.

Ron Haigler and Henry Johnson paced the Quakers with 24 points apiece. Bob Bigelow added 20 and turned in a strong defensive performance.

Harvard Victor, 64-63

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 21 (AP)—Harvard built a comfortable lead on the second-half shooting of Brian Banks and Mike Griffin tonight and then hung on for a 64-63 Ivy League victory over Brown. Banks scored 11 of his 19 points and Griffin 10 of his 14 in the second half.

Princeton Beats Columbia

Princeton outscored Columbia, 24-4, in the opening minutes of the second half last night and went to a 78-60 victory at Levien Gym.

Armond Hill, from Brooklyn, led Princeton with a game high of 22 points, including 14 during the point spree that broke open a close game.

The New York Times

Published: February 22, 1975

Copyright © The New York Times