

Harvard Hands Penn First Ivy Loss, 93-87

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 18 (AP)— Glenn Fine converted six free throws in the final 40 seconds tonight and Harvard defeated Penn, 93-87.

Penn led most of the way and appeared on its way to a 10-0 Ivy League record. However, the Crimson took the lead with two minutes remaining and Fine came through in the clutch.

Harvard, 8-12 for the season and 5-4
in the league, was led by Brian Banks with 24 points.

Penn's Kevin McDonald took game
honors with 29 for the Quakers.

The New York Times

Published: February 19, 1978

Copyright © The New York Times